A delegation of Alkhidmat Khawateen Trust (AKT) Peshawar, led by its President Ms. Nighat Sohrab, visited Sarhad University of Science and Information Technology, Peshawar and held a productive meeting with the University Registrar, Mr. Muhammad Nasir. The meeting was also attended by Dr. Saeed Mahfooz, Dean CS/IT and Management Sciences, Dr. Shabana Sajjad, Head, Department of Art & Design, Ms. Asmarah Kanwal, Department Civil Engineering, the Director ORIC, and Manager ORIC.

During the meeting, both sides engaged in meaningful discussions and exchanged views on potential areas of collaboration, including community engagement, women empowerment initiatives, and joint academic and social development programs. The participants expressed mutual interest in fostering a strong partnership to promote educational and welfare activities for the benefit of society, particularly women.

At the end of the visit, the AKT delegation distributed clothes among the supporting staff of the university as part of their welfare initiative.

Kind Regards,

Dr. Shabir Ahmad
